Important Information About Procedures For Opening A New Account: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means to you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. The information that is being requested and observed is for compliance with the requirements of Section 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act related to implementing customer identification and verification requirements.

The information about the cost of the Card described in this application is accurate as of 03/2014. This information may change after that date. To find out what may have changed, call 1-817-731-2756 or write to Texas People Federal Credit Union at 4613 Wellesley Ave, Fort Worth, Texas 76107.

New York & Vermont Residents: Upon your request, we will inform you of the name and address of each credit-reporting agency from which we obtained a credit report relating to you. New York residents may request a comparative listing of credit card rates, fees, and grace periods by writing to: Public Information, New York State Banking Department, 2 Rector Street, New York, NY 10006-1894 or calling 1-800-522-3330.

California Residents: (1) You have the right to prohibit us from disclosing to marketers of goods marketing information concerning you that discloses your identity. You may exercise your right by calling us at 1-817-731-2756; (2) If you are a married applicant you may apply for credit in your own name; (3) Applicants may, after credit approval, use the credit card up to its credit limit and may be liable for amounts extended under the plan to any joint applicant; (4) As required by law, you are hereby notified that a negative credit report reflecting on your credit record may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations.

Maine Residents: Consumer Reports (credit reports) may be requested in connection with this application. Upon request, you will be informed whether or not a consumer report was requested and, if it was, of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. Ohio Residents: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Rhode Island: Consumer reports may be requested with this application. Wisconsin Residents: Wisconsin law provides that no agreement, court order or individual statement applying to marital property will affect a creditor's interest unless prior to the time credit is granted the creditor is furnished with a copy of the agreement, court order or statement, or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision. To check on the status of your application, please call 1-817-731-2756.
